CLERK, SUPREME COURT

SUPPLEMENT TO STATE'S RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR RELINQUISH, ETC.

Comes now the State of Florida, by and through the undersigned Assistant Attorneys General, and respectfully suggests, should this Court be inclined to grant Mills leave to file a brief addressing any of the issues contained in his "Corrected Motion for Relinquishment, etc.," that the State be allowed until 5:00 p.m. on April 20, 2001, in which to file a brief in response thereto. The State recognizes that this is not in keeping with the simultaneous briefing requirement previously ordered by this Court, but, at the same time, Mills is now seeking to brief new issues that have never before been raised in any proceeding, and, consequently, the State has no knowledge of them. In other words, the situation is not the same as it was when this Court issued its order requiring simultaneous briefs following a hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT A BUTTERWORTH
ATTORNEY GENERAL
